

HARVARD GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION'S PROJECT ZERO PRESENTS

DEEPER THINKING, ACTIVE LEARNING

AN INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP ON MAKING THINKING VISIBLE

Thursday, December 5, 2019 — 4:30 - 6:00 p.m.
Gutman Conference Center, 6 Appian Way, Cambridge, MA

Visible Thinking is a flexible and systematic research-based conceptual framework, which aims to integrate the development of students' thinking with content learning across subject matters.

During this interactive workshop, participants will have an opportunity to:

- try out several thinking routines with a variety of curricular materials;
- hear an introduction to the research background of the framework to learn about the concept of dispositions fostered through routines;
- discuss the design of thinking routines and consider how they may be woven into classroom discourse and embedded in curriculum design.
