

PROJECT ZERO

Getting to Know Project Zero's Work

1) Explore Project Zero's website at www.pz.harvard.edu

Here you will find descriptions of our diverse projects past and present, a publications database (with the ability to download some), and links to individual project websites.

2) Follow Project Zero online.

Twitter: @ProjectZeroHGSE

Facebook: www.facebook.com/ProjectZeroHGSE

Subscribe to our YouTube channel: <http://hvr.d.me/RaEXm>

3) Take a course taught by a Project Zero Principal Investigator.

Search for courses online at:

https://courses.my.harvard.edu/psp/courses/EMPLOYEE/EMPL/h/?tab=HU CLASS SEARCH

See the handout in this packet for course titles and descriptions.

4) Apply for a work-study position.

All postings are available on the Student Employment Opportunities website at:

<http://www.seo.harvard.edu/> and descriptions are available in this handout packet.

5) Attend an event.

Project Zero periodically hosts special events (such as brown bag lunches featuring guest speakers) to which students are often invited. Check GSE student listservs for details.

6) Explore a Project Zero Thinking Routine.

http://pzartfulthinking.org/?page_id=2